1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a public house and to vary the activity and operating hours, and licensable activities. The application and map are attached at Appendix 1.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of the supply and sale of alcohol from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Caper café, restaurant and bar currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol for consumption either on or off the premises and a Supper Hours Certificate. Drinking up time is currently 30 minutes. They have applied for a variation in the activity and operating hours and licensable activities. There is no provision for drinking up time on the variation application as sale of alcohol hours are identical to the opening hours.

There were representations from the police and from an interested party submitted within the 28 day time limit. The representations are attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

As relevant representations have been received concerning the variations, members are required to determine the application regarding the variations requested and either grant the application with or without additional conditions or to refuse the variation as it considers necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives

8. CONCLUSION

The application is for a variation of a licence to the activities and operating and activity hours of a Market Deeping public house. There are representations from the police and interested parties. The police object on a number of grounds and argue that a relaxation in alcohol hours would lead to increased public disorder. The interested parties are equally concerned; they argue that extending the hours will have a negative impact on some licensing objectives. The applicant has agreed to most of the revisions put forward by the police and confirmed their consent by email.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a public house and to vary the activity and operating hours, drinking up time and licensable activities. To remove embedded restrictions. The application and map are attached at Appendix 1.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Northfields public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol for consumption either on or off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in the activity and operating hours generally and on special occasions, an additional 25 minutes drinking up time and additional licensable activities. The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Stagger Inn public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes.
