1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a public house and to vary the activity hours and operating hours, extend drinking up time by 10 minutes and to include new licensable activities. The application is attached at Appendix 1, together with a map of the premises.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The George & Dragon public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for the retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours and an additional 10 minutes drinking up time and additional licensable activities.

The Council received 3 letters of representations from interested parties. They were submitted within the 28 day time limit and are attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence and a Public Entertainment Licence at a hotel and to vary the activity hours and operating hours, to extend drinking up time and to include new activities. The application is attached at Appendix 1, together with a map.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of the supply and sale of alcohol houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The George hotel currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises, and a Public Entertainment Licence for the provision of public dancing or music or any other entertainment of a like kind. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours generally and on special occasions and additional licensable activities. Drinking up time will increase by 10 minutes to 30 minutes.

The council received 1 letter of representations from the police. The letter was received within the 28 day time limit and is attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

Where such a notice is given such an event will not be authorised where there is objection or shall be authorised subject to modification proposed by the police.

In order to accommodate the above variations, the premises opening times will be:

Main Hotel

07:00 to 00:30	Sunday to Thursday
07:00 to 01:30	Friday & Saturday

On those days when notice is given to the police that the premises should be open for the sale of alcohol on dates and times specified other than above the premises will remain open for 30 minutes after the sale of alcohol ceases.

Business Centre

09:00 to 01:30	Monday to Saturday to Thursday
09:00 to 00:30	Sunday

On those days when notice is given to the police that the premises should be open for the sale of alcohol on dates and times specified other than above the premises will remain open for 30 minutes after the sale of alcohol ceases.

The four licensing objectives of prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm, have been addressed in the application.

The application has been advertised and the statutory consultees consulted.

There is a letter of representations from the police. They object to the applicant's proposal to extend the hours on 20 unspecified occasions. They argue that the proposed variation is unlawful and will not give them sufficient time to plan policing for the special events.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a hotel and to vary the activity and operating hours, to extend drinking up time add licensable activities. In addition the applicant wishes to remove embedded conditions. The application and map are attached at Appendix 1.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Angel Hotel currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours and additional licensable activities. In addition the applicant wishes to remove the condition that alcohol can only be served to persons having meals after 23:00 and to permit hotel residents and their guests to consume alcohol after the end of normal permitted hours. The Supper Hours Certificate was not included with the application.

By letter dated 4th August 2005, the police objected to the applicant's alcohol hours and opening hours unless the applicant amended the application form to include drinking up time. Subsequently, the applicant resubmitted an amended application showing a 30 minute drinking up time and the police wrote again on 16th August 2005 withdrawing their objections. The letters are attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

Drinking up time: drinking up time will increase by 10 minutes to 30 minutes. For hotel guests consuming alcohol in the designated area the times shall be 11:00 to 02:00 on all days.

In order to accommodate the above extension of activity and operating hours, the premises opening time will be:

08:00 to 24:30	Monday to Saturday
08:00 to 24:00	Sunday

For Christmas Eve, New Years Eve and Bank Holidays the closing times will be 30 minutes after the last permitted sale of alcohol.

The four licensing objectives of prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm, have been addressed in the application.

The application has been advertised and the statutory consultees consulted.

Following an objection from the police, the applicant amended the application to reflect a 30 minute drinking up time. Consequently, the objection was withdrawn.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for a Premises Licence at a Takeaway to provide late night refreshment. The application is attached at Appendix 1, together with a map of the premises.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their Late Night Café Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Night Café Licence is no longer valid.

Zorba 4 is a Takeaway situated in the centre of Stamford. They have applied for a Premises Licence to enable them provide late night refreshment. There are letters of representations from the police and 44 letters of representations from interested parties. The letters which were submitted within the 28 day time limit and are attached as Appendix 2.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence for Daniel & Lambert Public House and to vary the activity and operating hours, drinking up time and licensable activities. The application and map are attached at Appendix 1.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Daniel Lambert public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours, an additional 10 minutes drinking up time and to retain the rights to provide live music by 2 entertainers in a bar.

Representations were received from the police and an interested party. The representation relates to the noise and nuisance arising from the premises. The local residents (John & Janice Kellas-Kelly) of Austin Street, who made the representation, consider that the proposed extended hours would have a negative effect on crime, disorder, public safety and public nuisance.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

3. DETAILS OF REPORT

The four licensing objectives of prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm, have been addressed in the application.

The application has been advertised and the statutory consultees consulted.

The Council received letters of representations from the police and an interested party:

John & Janice Kellas- Kelly The New House, Austin Street, Stamford

The representation relates to noise and nuisance arising from the premises. They argue the proposed extended hours would have a negative effect on crime, disorder, public safety and public nuisance.

The police advise they have agreed amended alcohol hours with the applicant:

Monday – Thursday alcohol hours to midnight

Friday and Saturday alcohol hours to 01:00

Sunday alcohol hours to 23:30

Premises to close 30 minutes after these times

An additional hour prior to Good Friday

An additional hour Christmas Eve and Boxing Day

Other bank holidays as stated above

Door to be closed at 23:00 every day, allowing no entry or re-entry after this time.

If the applicant confirms their agreement in writing to the above, the police will withdraw their representation.

However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The London Inn public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol on and off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours, an additional 10 minutes drinking up time and additional licensable activities.

Forty two Interested parties have submitted representations in respect of the proposed variations.

Letter of representation are attached as Appendix 2.

The police made representations in respect of additional conditions be attached to the licence to prevent crime and disorder. The applicant has confirmed their agreement in writing. See Appendix 3.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a public house and to vary the activity and operating hours, drinking up time hours and licensable activities. The application is attached at Appendix 1, together with a map of the premises.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Green Man public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol for consumption on or off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in activity and operating hours, an additional 40 minutes drinking up time, and to continue with occasional live music.

There were representations from interested parties, local residents. The letter of representations was submitted within the 28 day time limit. It is attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.

In order to accommodate the above extension of operating hours, and increase in drinking time, the premises opening time will be:

11:00 to 01:00 Monday to Sunday
12:00 to 02:00 Christmas Eve
12:00 to 04:00 New Year's Eve

The four licensing objectives of prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm, have been addressed in the application.

The application has been advertised and the statutory consultees consulted.

The council received letters of representations from fourteen interested parties:

Robert & Clare Humm	1 All Saints Place, Stamford
Margaret Simms	3 All Saints Place, Stamford
John & Janice Kellas – Kelly	Austin Street, Stamford
Peter & Julia Walker	9 Barn Hill, Stamford
