stay safe & independent

To help people aged 60 and over to stay safe and independent in their home

To provide a single gateway through which people aged 60 and over can access lots of services

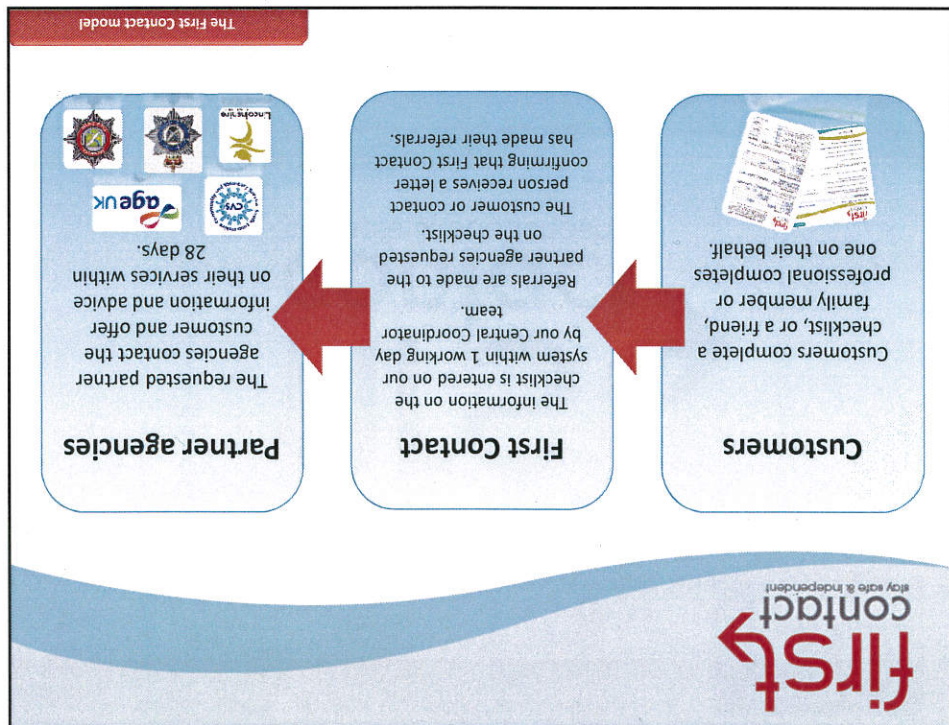

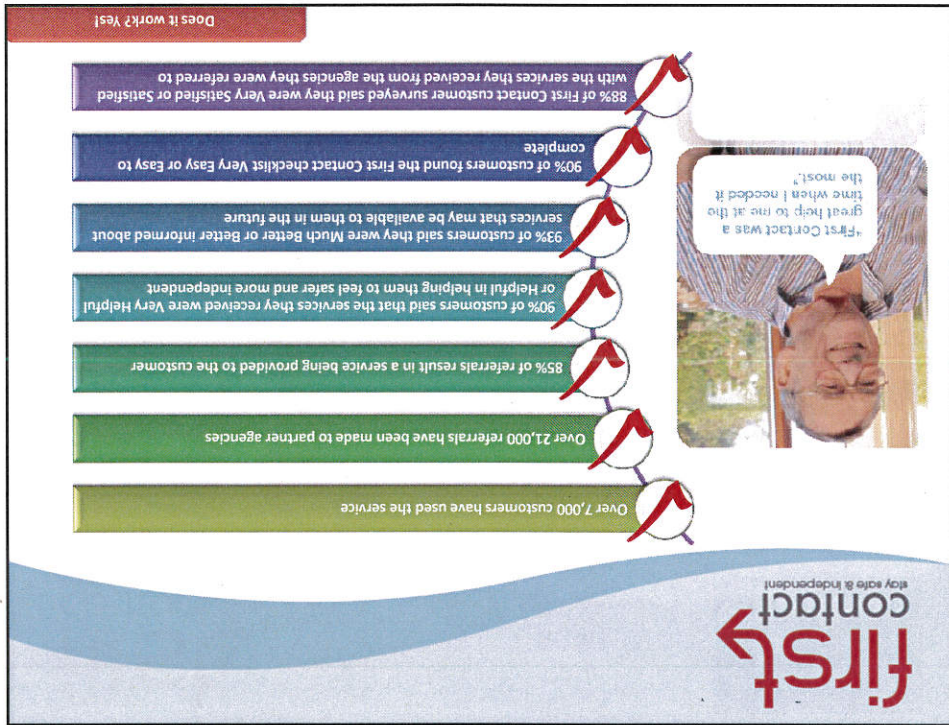

To make it easier for older people to access services before they reach crisis point, saving the need for more intrusive and costly services in the future

To bring together public and voluntary services, prevent duplication and encourage partnership working

First Contact launched in 2008 for people aged 60 and over
