1. INTRODUCTION

The application is for the conversion of an existing Justices' Licence at a public house and to vary the activity and operating hours, drinking up time and licensable activities and to remove embedded conditions. The application and map are attached at Appendix 1.

The Licensing Act 2003 transfers responsibility for the licensing of public houses from the Magistrates Courts to the local authority.

For a six month period from 7 February 2005, currently licensed business premises are able to convert their existing Justices' Licences into a premises licence. However, if the business wishes to vary any of the existing terms and conditions of their Justices Licence, the applicant needs to follow a set procedure which includes consultation with interested parties, who are able to address the variations that have been applied for. If an interested party makes a representation objecting to a variation to the licence, the matter will be determined by the Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing Committee.

The Premises Licence, once granted, lies dormant until the second appointed day, 24 November 2005, at which time the licence becomes operative and the Justices' Licence is no longer valid.

The Royal Oak public house currently holds a Justice's Licence for retail sale of alcohol for consumption either on or off the premises. Drinking up time is currently 20 minutes. They have applied for a variation in the activity and operating hours generally and on special occasions, an additional 10 minutes drinking up time and additional licensable activities. Further, the applicants apply to remove all embedded restrictions under the Licensing Act 1964, the Children and Young Persons Act 1933, the Cinematograph (Safety) Regulations 1955 and The Sporting Events (Control of Alcohol etc) Act 1985.

The Police submitted a letter of representation. The letter was submitted within the 28 day time limit and is attached as Appendix 2.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Committee determines, with regard to the licensing objectives, the application concerning the variations that have been requested.
