However, the Monitoring Officer conducted two investigations outside of receiving a formal complaint which resulting in two breaches of the Code of Conduct having been found.
- 3.7 For the same period, four complaints against Parish/Town Councillors were received with no breaches having been found.
- 3.8 An overview of the volume of complaints, reason for complaints, status of complaints and any necessary actions arising from complaints, including sanctions imposed in the event of a breach, are appended to the report. These are separated into municipal years (2021/22, 2022/23 and 2023/24) as well as being separated into categories of complaints relating to District Councillors and complaints relating to Parish/Town Councillors.
