

Events 2024 - 2025

Tuesday 1st October Lincolnshire Day – small scale this year with more planned for next.

Saturday 19th October Festival of Community Event.

Proposed Events

Tuesday 26th November Potential to tie in with St Wulfram's Church and the opening of the Christmas tree festival.
Members of the public also participate in a procession from the marketplace to the church.

Potential to make greater use of the marketplace and more community engagement.

Sunday December 1st Christmas Market and light switch on and trail

Saturday 7th December Small Business Saturday

January weather precludes

February weather precludes

March	TBC
April	Savage Skills – 2 days (Mountain Bike show and participation event)
May	The Whale & Projects around it (half term) E.G. Snail and the Whale art/theatre/writing possibilities.
.....
June	Summer Solstice Event – Mini Festival with covers band. Outdoor theatre – Sunday afternoon (touring theatre company can add to planned touring schedule This event would be delivered over the same weekend to keep costs and disruptions down.
July	French market and Brocante (perhaps to coincide with Bastille Day) with French Music/band (e.g. Maniere des Bohemiens) Bike Night – similar to what happens in Boston, Spilsby etc.
August	Beach Week. Beach with picnic tables, parasols, deck chairs. Ice cream, coffee, etc. Rhubarb Theatre/ Folksy Theatre/ DOT theatre, etc show too at various times throughout the day. With a local band on the Saturday night – not requiring large infrastructure.
September	Flower & Produce Event (local flower clubs?)

Outdoor cinema – Friday eve, Sat afternoon (family) Saturday evening Sunday afternoon

October 1 st	Lincolnshire Day (or this can happen on the Saturday closest to this date to maximise the potential of the event)
October 31 st	Halloween Trail/event – linked with local retailers
November ?	As November 2024 – potential to use the Market Place in conjunction with opening of the Christmas Tree Festival.
Sunday 30 th November(TBC)	Christmas Market and Light Switch on
Saturday 6 th December	Small Business Saturday